

panning

© 2011 Jerry Jindrich. All rights reserved.

Panning for gold means scooping up dirt from the bottom of the stream and sloshing it around in some water in a pan. Dirt, which is light, sloshes out of the pan. Gold sinks to the bottom. After all the dirt is gone, there might be a few gold flecks.